

Q3 2007
eNewsletter

MAKING HOUSTON SHINE SINCE 1979

www.houstonbeautiful.org KHB is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization

We Teach
We Work With Youth
We Lead
We Recognize Others

Spotlight on Liberty Gardens at Police and Fire Department Facilities

Beth and Charles Miller have long been associated with Houston area Beautification projects, and as the sixth anniversary of September 11, 2001 approaches we remember two special gardens the Millers helped create to honor of those who perished that day.

For the complete story please click here!

Our vision is for Houston to be recognized nationally as one of the cleanest, most beautiful metropolitan cities in America.

2007 Sponsors By Events

On the Trail of Trash

Exxon Mobil

Shell

ConocoPhillips

LBJ Engineering

Waste Management

Great American Backyard Campout

Houston Parks & Recreation Department

Keep Houston Beautiful

National Wildlife Federation

C3 Cleanups

City of Houston

Firestone

Republic Waste

Please click here for a complete list

To learn more about the many wonderful activities that Keep Houston Beautiful has been involved with during the past six months, please click on the story titles below.

'On the Trail of Trash' event a huge success

Campers enjoy a Great American Backyard Campout™ at Lake Houston Park

City Council Cleanups

ABC-13 Educate and Encourage Communities to recycle in their E-Cycling Drive

Love You Lots! a great success

Participate in the Trees for Efficiency Program

Accenture Helps "Wipe Out Wierless Waste"

Goldman Sachs Volunteers Beautify Eastwood Community Center Garden

Recycle; "It's easier than jumping out of a plane!" says former President George Bush

City of Houston Names Two New Directors

